

Hagerty Names Insurance Veteran Anthony J. Kuczinski to Hagerty's Board of Directors

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., July 9, 2024 /PRNewswire-PRWeb/ — Hagerty, Inc., (NYSE: HGTY) an automotive enthusiast brand and a leading specialty vehicle insurance provider, announced today that Anthony (Tony) J. Kuczinski, former Chief Executive Officer of Munich Reinsurance US Holdings (Munich Re US), will join Hagerty's Board of Directors, effective July 9, 2024.

Kuczinski held various leadership positions throughout his 34-year career at Munich Re including 15 years as President and Chief Executive Officer, as well as Executive Advisor to the Board of Management for Munich Re US upon his retirement as CEO in 2023. Prior to Munich Re, Kuczinski was Chief Operating Officer of NY Marine and General Insurance Company. He also worked in the audit practice of the public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand.

Kuczinski currently provides strategic and leadership advisory services to senior executives in the insurance industry through LST Risk Concepts, LLC, a firm he founded. In addition, he serves as Lead Independent Director of Skyward Specialty Insurance Group, a specialty insurance company delivering commercial property and casualty products and solutions. He also serves on the board of Ryan Specialty, a U.S. property and casualty insurance wholesale broker.

"I am pleased to welcome Tony to the Hagerty board as we embark on the next decade of profitable growth at the company," said McKeel Hagerty, Hagerty Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board. "Tony brings a wealth of insurance industry experience to Hagerty, as well as operational and financial expertise."

"I am excited to join Hagerty's Board of Directors and help the company execute on its long-term growth ambitions by delivering excellent products and services for automotive enthusiasts," said Kuczinski.
