

Hypercars, Horology and Hubris: Greenwich Concours d'Elegance Announces 2022 Seminar Themes

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., May 5, 2022 – Television stars, YouTube personalities, well-known writers as well as watch and classic car experts will gather at Roger Sherman Baldwin Park in Greenwich, Conn. on Saturday, June 4, 2022, in support of three exciting seminars held during the 26th annual Greenwich Concours d'Elegance.

Saturday Seminar Themes and Details:

Saturday, June 4, 2022, 10-11 AM ET

Hypercars, Supercars, Exotics: The New Golden Age of Speed

From Ferraris to McLarens to Bugattis, we are in an historically prolific era of low-volume sports cars. What's the hottest? What's the fastest? Which ones will be coveted decades from now and which ones will be forgotten? Join us for a lively deep dive into the peacocks of the automotive world.

Moderator: Larry Webster, Senior Vice President, Hagerty Media.

Panelists: Jamie Kitman, Automotive Journalist; Larry Kosilla, CEO, AMMO Auto Care; James Machinist, Vice President, Hagerty Garage + Social.*

Saturday, June 4, 2022, 1-2 PM ET

The Intersection of Cars and Time

Cars and watches are as natural a pairing as chocolate and peanut butter. In this seminar, our panelists will share both the latest movements, the most compelling watch and car combos, and how you can manage a watch portfolio like you do a car collection.

Moderator: Matt Tuccillo, Video Director, Hagerty.

Panelists: Phillip Toledano, Artist and Host, The Viva Bastardo Show; Zoe Abelson, Advisor and Founder, Graal; Cole Pennington, Editor, Hodinkee.*

Saturday, June 4, 2022, 2:15-3:15 PM ET

Fakes, CopyCats, Replicas, and Continuation Cars: The Risks and Upsides of the Unoriginal

Some copied cars are worth millions, others depreciate like a chocolate Sunday. What is the difference? How do you spot a counterfeit? Join the Hagerty Valuation team and auction veterans to hear stories of faked ID tags and salvaged treasures and learn how to spot the difference.

Moderator: Larry Webster, Senior Vice President, Hagerty Media.

Panelists: Dave Kinney, Publisher, Hagerty Price Guide; Wayne Carini, TV personality and Owner, F40 Motorsports; Ramsey Potts, Chief Sales Officer, Broad Arrow Group.

The 2022 Greenwich Concours d'Elegance seminars complement Saturday's Cars & Community presented by Griot's Garage, a family-friendly celebration of the automobile

Hypercars, Supercars, Exotics: The New Golden Age of Speed

Moderator: Larry Webster, Senior Vice President, Hagerty Media

Long-time automotive journalist, racer, and enthusiast, Larry Webster is Hagerty's Senior Vice President of Media. Webster started his journalism career at Car and Driver, eventually becoming the publication's Technical Director. Webster also hosted Car and Driver Television from 2002 through 2005. In 2008 he became Automotive Editor of Popular Mechanics. In June 2012 he left to become Editor-in-Chief of Road & Track, a role he held until he joined Hagerty in 2016.

Panelists:

Jamie Kitman, Automotive Journalist

Jamie Lincoln Kitman is an award-winning columnist and reporter whose work has appeared in Automobile Magazine, Road & Track, Car & Driver, Hagerty, New York Times, Harper's, The Nation, Bloomberg, Vanity Fair and other U.S. publications, as well as the UK magazines CAR, Top Gear and The Road Rat. A lawyer by training and father of three, he founded his own music management company which has represented acts including They Might Be Giants, Violent Femmes, Meat Puppets, Yo La Tengo and OK Go. President of Octane Film Cars, a Hagerty partner that supplies picture cars to television shows including "The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel," "FBI: Most Wanted," "The Deuce" and "The Americans," his own eclectic collection of old cars includes a Mark 1 Lotus Cortina, Lancia Fulvia Berlina 2C, Peugeot 504 Coupe, Hillman Imp and a 1968 International Travelall.

Larry Kosilla, CEO, AMMO Auto Care

Kosilla is the owner of AMMO Auto Care founded in 2011 as well as the host of the AMMO NYC YouTube channel with over 2 million subscribers. The channel features educational and entertaining content ranging from rare barn find restorations to detailing concours winners.

Larry enjoys driving his Audi R8, Porsche Taycan Cross Turismo, and attends the occasional track day with his Speedsport tuned Porsche 964 Carrera 4. Kosilla is a knowledgeable enthusiast and true purveyor of car culture.

James Machinist, Vice President, Hagerty Garage + Social

Machinist is a founding partner of Hagerty's growing garage network. He oversees both the safe care and feeding of exclusive cars and the local events that bring enthusiasts together. What started as The Collector's Car Garage in Bedford, NY, has now branched into seven locations across North America with more on the way. Machinist is a lifelong enthusiast who races, rallies, and spreads the automotive message.

Saturday, June 4, 2022, 1:00 to 2:00 PM ET

The Intersection of Cars and Time

Moderator: Matt Tuccillo, Video Director, Hagerty

Tuccillo is a recovering motorsports man, having done a decade of his career traveling the globe doing marketing, brand work, sponsorships, and digital content with rally car driver Ken Block. Prior to that he worked in Manhattan for a handful of smaller automotive magazine titles. These days, however, he's responsible for the video and podcast efforts at Hagerty Media and the Hagerty Podcast Network. A firm believer in the "two car solution," he's yet to determine if that mindset is applicable to watches.

Panelists:

Phillip Toledano, Artist and Host, The Viva Bastardo Show

Toledano is a former ad agency executive turned commercial artist who is known for his contrarianism and collecting the most interesting and fascinating examples of both cars and watches. From his rally period (a former Lancia 037, Stratos and Delta S4 owner) to his current obsessions with 1970s Patek Philippe watches, he is a collector who always seems to be ahead of the curve. He also happens to host "The Viva Bastardo Show," which is part of the Hagerty Podcast Network.

Zoe Abelson, Advisor and founder, Graal

Abelson is the founder of Graal, a vintage/luxury watch service that helps clients buy and sell their watch "grails." One of the few women working within the space, Abelson has previously spent extensive time in Hong Kong during her time working at WatchBox and is one of the premiere dealers within the vintage and pre-owned arena.

Cole Pennington, Editor, Hodinkee

Pennington is an editor at Hodinkee, the web's number one destination for all things horological. A well-traveled writer who has previously done extensive time in southeast Asia for both CNN Travel and the BBC, Pennington is also an avid car enthusiast and has a reputation for appreciating the close-knit relationships between both cars and watches, to the point where Hodinkee founder and CEO, Ben Clymer, has described him as a “total car nut.”

Saturday, June 4, 2022, 2:15 to 3:15 PM ET

Fakes, CopyCats, Replicas, and Continuation Cars: The Risks and Upsides of the Unoriginal

Moderator: Larry Webster, Senior Vice President, Hagerty Media (see above)

Panelists:

Dave Kinney, Publisher, Hagerty Price Guide

Beginning in his early teens, Dave Kinney worked at a dealership that sold classic and exotic cars. Although he was “bored with school,” he couldn’t get enough of the history, back stories and characters surrounding cars. During the past 25 years, Kinney has owned hundreds of collector vehicles and has participated in the sale, repair, and valuation of all types of automobiles. One of the country’s leading automobile valuation authorities, he is an accredited automobile appraiser and the publisher of the Hagerty Price Guide.

Wayne Carini, TV Personality and Owner, F40 Motorsports

Master car restorer Wayne Carini has a resume that includes body and paint work on many of the world’s rarest cars. He has been featured in the New York Times as well as numerous automobile magazines, and is the host of Chasing Classic Cars, in its tenth season on Discovery’s Velocity channel. Wayne owns and operates F40 Motorsports, F40 Restoration, and Carini Consulting, where Wayne advises and manages collections for clients around the world.

Ramsey Potts, Chief Sales Officer, Broad Arrow Group

Growing up in a family steeped in British sports cars, Ramsey became interested in all things automotive from an early age. He’s held a number of positions in the classic-car world but he’s mainly focused on consulting clients with the acquisition and selling of collector cars. Ramsey combines his passion for cars with an interest in fine art, which was cultivated by his father and mentor, Bill Ruprecht, a former Chairman & CEO of Sotheby’s. Ramsey specializes in European marques, with an emphasis on Post-War Sports and GT cars. He is an active member of several European marque car clubs and enjoys vintage racing his Porsche 944.
