(TRAVERSE CITY, Michigan) July 12 2023 -Hagerty, Inc., (NYSE: HGTY) an automotive lifestyle brand and a leading specialty insurance provider alongside Broad Arrow Auctions, today announced the Hendricks Collection at the Gateway Museum is now available online through Hagerty Marketplace, a trusted, easy-to-use platform to buy and sell automobiles. The lots will close between July 31 and August 11, with 2-3 cars ending each weekday during that period.

The Collection is split in half with approximately 25 being sold online as presented here and an additional 25 being offered at the Broad Arrow Monterey Jet Center Auction this August 17-18, additional information on those live auction cars can be found at www.broadarrowauctions.com.

The Hendricks Collection comprises over 50 motor cars in total from the early 1900s through today with each car inspected and cataloged by a Broad Arrow specialist on behalf of Hagerty Marketplace. Offered on behalf of the Hendricks Collection at the Gateway Auto Museum, which is devoted to understanding, and celebrating, the history, design and social impact of the American automobile.

Senior Car Specialist Donnie Gould comments, “We are honored to have been chosen to represent the Gateway Collection. The quality of each of the cars is outstanding, most are in show quality condition and each one was hand-picked with a vision, making for an exciting addition to our Marketplace.”

A significant highlight of the collection is the 2005 Ford GT, equipped with all four options and finished in Mark IV Red with white racing stripes. Showing just over 8,200 miles from new it is estimated at $250,000 - $300,000.

Another highlight is the 1957 Pontiac Bonneville Convertible, finished in Kenya Ivory and Bonneville Red and a red and white leather interior accented by a white power-operated Pinpoint convertible top with a new boot. Powered by a 347 cu-in overhead-valve V8 rated at 310 horsepower with a three-speed Hydra-Matic automatic transmission. Representing the first year of Bonneville production and the most well-equipped Pontiac on offer in 1957, this
